Missions Update Of The Week

Serving with International Tribal Ministries

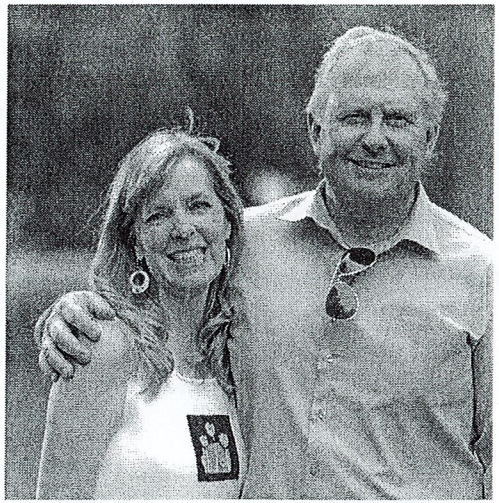
Cochabamba, Bolivia S.A.

Dear Friends,



The Indigenous Bible School for the Securé River starts on Monday (July 8) and will run for 2 weeks. We are very excited and grateful to the Lord for His provision. Please be praying as especially this first time, there will need to be adjustments. We are thankful for the Bolivian Bible teacher who will teach the first week. The plan is to teach 1/2 sessions in Spanish and then break off into 1/2 sessions in the tribal language with our tribal missionaries to review the lesson. We will have 3 tribal languages represented - Yuracare, Chimane, Trinitario. Please pray for safety in flights and canoe transportation during these weeks.

Pray for our Christian teenagers in Oromomo who face opposition from teachers in the school for the stands that they take. Pray that they will be courageous and stand strong for the Lord.

Pray for Tony as he shoulders a lot of responsibility here on the field. Pray for the Lord's wisdom in his decisions.

The Hammit family will be arriving here in August. This is a pilot family for which we are very thankful. Pray as they will be saying their goodbyes to family, church and friends. Also pray for their teenage children (boy and girl) as this is a major change in their lives at this age. They also have a baby.

Thanks so much for praying. We'll be posting more news on the Bible school.

Seniors (60+), our first SWAP event this fall, an International Dinner, will take place on at 12:00, noon, Thursday, September 19th. For the meal, we need your help. We seek people from various ethnic backgrounds to prepare a dish for the group to enjoy. To assure we have sufficient food, we need input to know how many different dishes we can expect. Sign up at the foyer table by mid-August if you will participate in this way: plan to tell us briefly what your dish is and how far back in your family heritage this dish goes! If you plan to attend on September 19th, but will not be preparing a special dish, that is just fine. Just check the column "No Dish" when you sign up. Our SWAP committee will meet on August 25th to finalize details including food prepared by Committee members as needed. Questions? See Lori Gilbert or Denise Sandt.

Our Thursday morning Heart to Heart Ladie's Bible Study is in need of childcare helpers for our sessions starting in September. It is a paid position from 9:30 to 11:30. If you are interested in a weekly or substitute position, please see Rachael Wilson.
